

The Feast of the Epiphany

Gathering Prayer

Creator of the heavens, who led the Magi by a star
to worship the Christ-child guide and sustain us,
that we may find our journey's end in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Prayer

The Old/Original Testament (Isaiah 60:1-6)

Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you. For darkness shall cover the earth and thick darkness the peoples, but the LORD will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you. Nations shall come to your light and kings to the brightness of your dawn. Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together; they come to you; your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried in their nurses' arms. Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you; the wealth of the nations shall come to you. A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD.

Psalm (72:1-7, 10-end)

Give the king your judgements, O God, ♦ and your righteousness to the son of a king.
Then shall he judge your people righteously ♦

and your poor with justice.

May the mountains bring forth peace, ♦ and the little hills righteousness for the people.

May he defend the poor among the people, ♦

deliver the children of the needy and crush the oppressor.

May he live as long as the sun and moon endure, ♦

from one generation to another.

May he come down like rain upon the mown grass, ♦

like the showers that water the earth.

In his time shall righteousness flourish, ♦ and abundance of peace till the moon shall be no more.

The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall pay tribute; ♦

the kings of Sheba and Seba shall bring gifts.

All kings shall fall down before him; ♦
all nations shall do him service.

For he shall deliver the poor that cry out, ♦

the needy and those who have no helper.

He shall have pity on the weak and poor; ♦
he shall preserve the lives of the needy.

He shall redeem their lives from oppression and violence, ♦

and dear shall their blood be in his sight.

Long may he live; unto him may be given gold from Sheba; ♦

may prayer be made for him continually

and may they bless him all the day long.

May there be abundance of grain on the earth, standing thick upon the hilltops; ♦

may its fruit flourish like Lebanon and its grain grow like the grass of the field.

May his name remain forever and be established as long as the sun endures; ♦

may all nations be blest in him and call him blessed.

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel,

who alone does wonderful things.

And blessed be his glorious name for ever.

May all the earth be filled with his glory.
Amen. Amen.

The New Testament (Ephesians 3:1-12)

This is the reason that I, Paul, am a prisoner for Christ Jesus for the sake of you gentiles, for surely you have already heard of the commission of God's grace that was given me for you and how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote above in a few words, a reading of which will enable you to perceive my understanding of the mystery of Christ. In former generations this mystery was not made known to humankind, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that is, the gentiles have become fellow heirs, members of the same body, and sharers in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. Of this gospel I have become a servant according to the gift of God's grace that was given me by the working of his power. Although I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given to me to bring to the gentiles the news of the boundless riches of Christ and to make everyone see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God, who created all things, so that through the church the wisdom of God in its rich variety might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. This was in accordance with the eternal purpose that he has carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord, in whom we have access in boldness and confidence through faith in him.

The Holy Gospel (Matthew 2:1-12)

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, magi from the east came to Jerusalem, asking, "Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star in the east, and have come to pay him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him, and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of Messiah was to be born. They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for so it has been written by the prophet: 'And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah, for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.'" Then Herod secretly called for the magi and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, "Go and search diligently for the child, and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage." When they had heard the king, they set out, and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen in the east, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Post Communion

Lord God,
the bright splendour whom the nations seek:
may we who with the wise men have been drawn by your light discern the glory of your presence in your Son,
the Word made flesh, Jesus Christ our Lord.
